Families in Transition

Families in Transition is a class (see schedule below) for parents of minor children who are going through a divorce, separation, change of custody, legitimization, or some other change in family structure.

It focuses on co-parenting issues such as how to talk to children and help them adjust to the changes; children's developmental levels and appropriate behaviors; stages of grief; the statistical facts about divorce; finances; the challenges of blended families; resources, including books for children and adults, and other services for families.

Anyone may attend this class, although it is court-mandated for both parents of children 18 and under who are seeking a divorce. The fee for the weekday seminar (Monday-Friday) is $40 per person. The fee for the Saturday seminar is $50. In order to get a certificate of completion (which the court requires), you must have your Civil Action number, which you can find on the legal papers. On the day of the seminar, participants should bring a credit or debit card, cash or money order, and their Civil Action case number. We do not accept personal checks. Classes are held several times a month, with locations in Bibb and Houston counties. You must call 478-745-2811 to register. Each participant must call the registration line to reserve a space for the class. The reservation line is available 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

This seminar is for adults only. No children, please.
